

Extending SCIP to Solve Quadratic MINLPs

T. Koch<sup>1</sup> and S. Vigerske<sup>2</sup>

Abstract: We present an extension to the well-known high performance MIP Solver SCIP to handle non-convex quadratic constraints. The necessary changes on all levels starting with the modeling language, through underestimators and separators to primal heuristics are discussed. Computational results will be given.

---

<sup>1</sup> Konrad-Zuse-Zentrum für Informationstechnik Berlin
Takustra 7, 14195 Berlin-Dahlem, Germany
koch@zib.de

<sup>2</sup> Department of Mathematics
Mathematisch-Naturwissenschaftliche Fakultät II
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
10099 Berlin, Germany
stefan@vigerske.de